

Join Glasgow Vineyard and thousands of people around the world using this reading plan. We will instruct you with the how to's and provide the reading plan. You provide the time. (10-15 minutes per day)

You will need:

- A Bible (free ones are available at the Welcome Desk or online at Bible Gateway or on most smartphones)
- A Pen
- A Journal or Notebook
- A Reading Plan (provided)
- A Calendar or Daily Planner

While reading the Bible it is important to record your thoughts and to write down what we are learning and hearing from God. Start each Bible reading session with a prayer asking the Holy Spirit to highlight one passage of scripture to you. When you come across this passage, take a pen and underline the verse. The mnemonic SOAP (Scripture, Observation, Application, and Prayer) will be used as a format for each page of your journal.

Frequently asked questions

Q. It's not January 1st, where should I start?

A. Start with today's date and go from there. By always using the current day's reading list, you will be reading the same scriptures as we all are.

Q. Why do you say "join thousands of people?"

A. In his book The Divine Mentor, author Wayne Cordiero features this reading plan and journaling method. These methods have been employed by many thousands of people.

Q. What happens if I miss a day?

A. You will! Do not worry about "back tracking" and making up for days that you miss. You don't want this to become a chore. Always read the current day.

Q. When should I start?

A. TODAY!!

SOAP

S for Scripture

Open your Bible to the reading found under today's date of the Bible reading plan. Take time reading and allow God to speak to you. When you are done, look for a verse that particularly spoke to you that day, and write it in your journal.

O for Observation

What do you think God is saying to you in this scripture? Ask the Holy Spirit to teach you and reveal Jesus to you. Paraphrase and write this scripture down in your own words, in your journal.

A for Application

Personalize what you have read, by asking yourself how it applies to your life right now. Perhaps it is instruction, encouragement, revelation of a new promise, or corrections for a particular area of your life. Write how this scripture can apply to you today.

P for Prayer

This can be as simple as asking God to help you use this scripture, or it may be a greater insight on what He may be revealing to you. Remember, prayer is a two way conversation, so be sure to listen to what God has to say! Now, write it out.

When you are done, go back to the top of the page and give your daily entry a descriptive title. You will use this title to make an entry in your table of contents in your journal.

If you are keeping a paper journal go to the table of contents and write on one line the date, your title, the scripture reference, and the page number for that entry. This way, after a while you will have in one place all the daily things the Lord has been speaking to you.

This reading plan is designed for those who are exploring the claims of Jesus or who are just starting out in their faith and follows the pattern of the full plan, but involves slightly less reading and was developed by Wayne Cordiero.
